Luxurious elegance

Address: Chorto

Description: Imagine an amazingly spacious and cozy villa located on a gently sloped olive grove with spectacular, uninterrupted sea views. Exactly that is for sale here. The orientation of the land is south, south-west, ideal for bio-climatic living conditions. This mature olive grove comes with a building license for a state-of-the art two storey villa with a pool that extends around the two sides of the house. The plans include minutest details of the villa-to-be; if you happen to like those, you can start building straight after the purchase. The planned villa comprises of three en-suite bedrooms on the lower level, whereas the top floor is a generously spaced area that includes the living room with fire place, the kitchen and a guest bathroom. The infinity pool that wraps around the house, is meant to be on the upper level. The property has direct car access and the plans provide for a parking area for two cars.
