

The grocery store

Address: Argalasti

Description: This 3-storey stone house is situated in the village of Argalasti, only a couple of minutes walk from the square. Each floor measures 78,90sqm, whereas the land plot incl. the house measures 160,80sqm. Half of the ground floor used to be a grocery store, with high ceilings and lots of openings, shedding plenty of light. The other half of the ground floor includes the kitchen, what used to be the dining room and the main entrance from the garden side. Both, the kitchen as well as the dining room have a fireplace. The top floor consists of four equal-sized bedrooms and a marble balcony. The two bedrooms facing east offer uninterrupted views of the opposite hills. The garden at the back of the house is about 80sqm. The property requires complete restoration for which we will be happy to assist you.
